ARTICLE 1

SCOPE OF AGREEMENT

The parties hereto enter into this collective bargaining agreement for the purpose of maintaining harmonious and peaceful labor conditions and establishing methods for a fair and peaceful adjustment of disputes that may arise between the parties. Both parties pledge to cooperate with each other in good faith in the enforcement of the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Both parties desire to provide uninterrupted operations to the clients they serve and to provide a secure and safe productive work environment. The Union and the employees covered by this Agreement recognize their goal is to cooperatively provide transportation safely, reliably, and efficiently.

In an effort to continue harmonious and cooperative relationships with its employees, and to insure the orderly and uninterrupted efficient operations of its business, the Company and the Union desire to enter into an Agreement reached through collective bargaining which will have for its purposes, among others, the following:

- a. To promote individual efficiency and service to the citizens and customers of the Company's service;
- b. To avoid interruption or interference with the efficient operation of the Company's business;
- c. To recognize the legitimate interests of the Union to participate through collective bargaining in the determination of the terms and conditions of employment;
- d. To promote fair and reasonable working conditions; and
- e. To provide a basis for the adjustment of matters of mutual interest by means of amicable discussion and/or the grievance procedure.

ARTICLE 2

UNION RECOGNITION AND DUES

The Company recognizes the Amalgamated Transit Union, Local 627 (Union) as the sole and exclusive bargaining agent for all matters affecting the wages, hours and terms and conditions of employment of its full time and part time Street Car Operators and Maintenance employees employed by the Company at its facility currently located at 1927 Race Street, Cincinnati, Ohio; but excluding all other employees, professional employees, office clerical employees, guards, managers, supervisors and supervisory foremen as defined by the Act.

All Streetcar operators and maintenance employees (employees) who are members of the Union on the date of execution of this Agreement, shall remain members of the Union as a condition of employment. Union membership for this Agreement, is required only to the extent that employees must pay either the Union's initiation fees and periodic dues or service fees which in the case of a regular service fee payer shall be equal to the Union's initiation fees and periodic dues, and in the case of an objecting service fee payer shall be the proportion of the initiation fees and dues corresponding to the portion of the Union's total expenditures that support representational activities. All employees who are hired hereafter into the bargaining unit shall become and remain members of the Local Union as a condition of employment on and after the ninetieth (90th) calendar day following the beginning of their employment or on and after the ninetieth (90th) calendar day following the effective date of this subsection or the date of this Agreement, whichever is the later. An employee who has failed to acquire, or thereafter maintain, membership in the Union as herein provided, shall be terminated seventy-two (72) hours after his/her Employer has received written notice from an authorized representative of the Local Union, certifying that membership has been, and is continuing to be, offered to such employee on the same basis as all other members and further, that the employee has had notice and opportunity to make all dues or initiation fee payments.

On the first payday of each month, the Company agrees to deduct from the pay of each member of the Union employed by the Company such uniformly required initiation fee, dues and assessments, as defined by the Constitution and Laws of the Union, as the Union shall have determined to be payable from each member. The Company shall furnish to the Union a list of employees, members of the Union, and the amount of the deduction made from the pay of each member. The Company agrees to remit to the Union the aggregate amount of such deductions together with such statement. The Union agrees to provide to the Company a checkoff authorization signed by each employee.

a. ATU-COPE Deduction

The Amalgamated Transit Union Committee on Political Education (ATU-COPE) deduction shall be made on each payday as long as the Union has a signed Authorization Card on file, and forwards the card to the Employer. A copy of deductions shall be forwarded to the Amalgamated Transit Union (International Headquarters) along with a check for the amount of deductions, and a copy sent to the Local Union.

The Union shall hold the Company safe and harmless from any and all liability arising out of the Administration of this Article.

ARTICLE 3

PROTECTION OF RIGHTS

The Employer shall not enter into any agreement or contract with persons covered by this Agreement individually or collectively, which in any way conflicts with the terms and provisions of this Agreement. Any such Agreement or Contract shall be null and void. Employees covered by this Agreement shall work in accordance with this Agreement. Any past verbal agreements will no longer be in effect from the date of the signing of this agreement.

All employees covered by this Agreement shall conform with all Federal, State of Ohio and City Laws and Regulations. The Company and the Union reserve the right to develop and implement procedures and rules that insure compliance with any law or regulation.

ARTICLE 4

SEPARABILITY AND SAVINGS CLAUSE

Any part of this Agreement which conflicts with applicable City, State, or Federal laws or regulations shall be considered invalid. Such invalidity will not affect any other provision. Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended to violate any Federal or State laws, rules or regulation made pursuant hereto.

In the event that any Article or Section is held invalid or enforcement of or compliance with which has been restrained, as above set forth, the parties affected thereby shall enter into immediate collective bargaining negotiations after receipt of written notice of the desired amendments by either the Company or the Union for the purpose of arriving at a mutually satisfactory replacement for such Article or Section during the period of invalidity or restraint.

ARTICLE 5

MAINTENANCE OF STANDARDS

The Union recognizes the responsibility assumed by it as the exclusive bargaining agent for the employees covered by this Agreement. The Union therefore pledges its full cooperation and that of its membership in the Company's efforts to assure a full day's work on the part of employees and that it will combat any other practices which hurt or interfere with the efficient operation and management of the Company's business. The Union further agrees that it and its membership will fully cooperate with the Company in its efforts to operate the facility and business of the Company covered by this Agreement as efficiently and economically as possible, improve service, preserve equipment and strengthen good will between the Company and its employees, as well as with its customers.

Employees shall work at all times to the best interest of the Company, the client, and the public that is served; they shall perform efficient service in their work; they shall operate and handle the Company and their clients (SORTA and the City of Cincinnati's) assets and property carefully, safely and with the utmost regard to the safety of customers, fellow workers, the general public and equipment entrusted to their care; and they shall at all times use their influence and best endeavors to preserve and protect the interest of the Company and its clients and cooperate in the promotion and advancement of the Employer's interest.

COOPERATION

The Union and the employees agree that all employees will perform efficient service in the Streetcar Transportation department of work; that they will be attentive to their duties; that they will observe and conform to the policies, rulebook, standard operating procedures, and regulations of the Company and its clients; that they will comply with the instructions and direction of the officials, officers and managers over them; that they will direct and/or operate equipment carefully and with the utmost regard at all times for the care of the equipment, fully cooperate in all investigations, promote the safety and security of the passengers and the public in general in a continuous program of good public relations and improved security; that they will at all times provide the public full business courtesy and respectful consideration and treatment; and that they will use their influence, good will and best endeavors to protect the property of the Company and their clients, as well as promote its interests to the end that the Streetcar system may grow in popularity and increase in efficiency, volume and scope, and that the revenue and resulting profit from its operation may become greater.

The Union recognizes that there may be occasions caused by flood, storm, earthquake, terrorism or other cause (including act of God) which interrupt the operators effectively to prevent the normal work schedule from occurring. Under such circumstances, the Union will cooperate with the Employer to provide required flexibility of requirements that otherwise would be in effect. If normal work schedules are disrupted the Company may use that day or days for training purposes for operators and provide work for the maintenance employees.

ARTICLE 7

MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

7.1 The Union recognizes the exclusive right and responsibility of the Company to manage its facility and to direct its working forces. All rights of the Company which have not been specifically abridged or modified by this Agreement are retained by the Company including, but not limited to, the right to make and modify reasonable work rules and regulations (such as the Employee Handbook). As a context to the new start of the system in Cincinnati, the success of the Streetcar system will require flexibility and cooperation as both the employees and the public learn to interface on a regular basis with the operation. The Company agrees to distribute copies of any new work rules, or changes to existing work rules or regulation, at least five (5) days prior to implementation.

7.2 The Company shall have the right to exercise full control and discipline in the interest of safe and efficient service and the conduct of its business; subject, however, to the terms of the Agreement and to the employees' privilege of presenting grievance as herein defined and provided for.

Except as otherwise specifically limited by this Agreement, the Company retains rights to fully control any matters concerning the management and conduct of its business. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, such rights and functions specifically include:

- a. The procedures, policies, techniques, methods, and means of operating the Employer's business;
- b. The determination of the number and time of shifts, and assignments. The determination of the size of the workforce; qualifications of employees, the utilization of non-bargaining unit personnel to support bargaining unit work and as needed to protect the service and to maintain the qualifications of non-bargaining unit personnel, the allocation and assignment of work, the determination of policies affecting the selection of employees for assignment and/or promotion,
- c. The hiring, direction, supervision, discipline and discharge for just cause of employees;
- d. The determination of financial policies, including general accounting procedures, establishment and modification of routes and customer relations;

- e. The establishment of standards of customer service, safety rules, attendance rules and quality of work and other measures of employee productivity, including improvement, change or elimination of methods, materials, equipment or facilities.

Furthermore, the Company may implement and enforce reasonable rules and regulation and/or may modify or eliminate such rules or regulations at any time so long as such rules or regulations are not in conflict with any specific provision of this Agreement. Upon implementation of any new rules or modification of existing rules, the Company shall give written notice to the Union and employees and provide all required training prior to implementation.

The foregoing statement of Management Rights shall not be deemed to exclude other management rights not specifically stated, including those rights provided by law.

The Company's failure to exercise rights reserved to it, shall not be deemed a waiver of its right to exercise such function or right, not preclude the Company from exercising the same in some other way not in conflict with the express provisions, only after ratification.

7.3 The Company shall not be limited in meeting the desires, safety and security of its customer. The relevant provisions of a revenue contract between the Company and its customer under which an employee of the Company performs work shall be incorporated by reference into this Agreement, to the extent only such provisions impose terms, conditions or requirements upon the Company and/or its employees that are not required under the terms of this Agreement. In a situation in which a provision of this Agreement is in conflict with any of the provisions of such revenue contracts, the relevant provisions of said revenue contracts shall prevail for all purposes. Nothing in this Section shall be construed as subjecting any of the terms of any of the Company's revenue contracts to the Grievance and Arbitration provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 8

ACCESS TO PREMISES

The Company agrees to admit to its facility, during its regular working hours the authorized Business Agent of the Union for the purpose of observing the application of this Agreement and adjusting grievances. This does not include other premises of the clients. These activities may not cause any interruption of the Company's working schedule nor may they interfere with the work of employees.

To meet with the General Manager, the Union Business Agent shall arrange for a mutually convenient date and time with the Company's General Manager or designee on duty before any visit. The Union Business Agent must also state to the manager or designee the reason for the visit and observe all Company rules and safety rules while on the Company's premises. In the event of a change of agents, the Company will be notified in writing.

ARTICLE 9

DIRECT DEPOSIT

The Company may directly deposit the employee's regular paycheck into the employee's bank account or pay card on or prior to the regular payday or other methods available through the Company's payroll. A mistake in an employee's pay shall be adjusted within three (3) business days.

ARTICLE 10

UNION STEWARDS

The Company recognizes the right of the Union and the Union Offices to designate a steward and alternates from the Employers seniority list if needed. An Alternate can act only in the absence of a designated Steward.

Because of the limited number of represented employees, it is imperative that union business requirements are minimized and requested absences scheduled with sufficient time to provide for a replacement.

Stewards and Alternates shall not conduct union business during their work hours nor another employee's work hours. The Company recognizes these limitations upon the authority of job Steward and their Alternates. No Steward shall make any decision with the Company that conflicts with the terms and provisions of the Contract.

ARTICLE 11

NO STRIKE/NO LOCKOUT CLAUSE

The Union does hereby affirm and agree that it will not engage in any strike or concerted refusal to perform work regarding any matter that can be resolved through the grievance/arbitration provisions of this agreement during the term of this Agreement. Likewise, the Employer will not lockout employee's during the term of this Agreement.

11.1 The Union agrees that during the entire term of this Agreement, the Union, their officers, representatives, members and the persons covered by this Agreement shall not take part in any strike, partial strike, intermittent strike, sympathy strike, bannering, hand billing, slow down or stoppage of work, boycott, picketing or any other interruption of or interference with the work and business of the Company. The Union further agrees that it will not honor or recognize, and that it will advise and instruct all employees covered by this Agreement not to honor or recognize, any picket line or picketing in any form whatsoever by any union at the Company's place of business or any other facility or operation of the Company regardless of where the same may be situated or located during the entire term of this Agreement, It being the intent and purpose of this Article to insure the Company of and guarantee it industrial peace and freedom from interference with or interruption of its business in any manner because of any labor dispute during the full term of this Agreement, irrespective of the cause, reason or nature of such dispute. The participation by any employee in any conduct prohibited by this Article or the failure or refusal on the part of any employee to comply with any provision of this Article shall be cause for whatever disciplinary action, including suspension or discharge, is deemed necessary by the Company. Any such disciplinary action taken under this Section, including discharge, shall not be subject to the grievance or arbitration procedure of this Agreement. Accordingly, the only issue subject to the grievance or arbitration procedure of this Agreement is the issue of participation by any employee in any conduct prohibited by this Article.

11.2 In consideration of this no-strike covenant and pledge by the Union and employees, the Company agrees that it shall not lock out employees during the period of this Agreement. The term "lock out" is hereby defined so as not to include the discharge, suspension, termination, layoff, failure to recall or failure to return to work of employees, by the Company.

11.3 Neither the violation of any provision of this Agreement nor the commission of any act constituting an unfair labor practice or otherwise made unlawful by any federal, state or local law nor the existence or alleged existence of any condition mentioned in Section 502 of the Labor Management Relations Act, 1947, shall excuse employees, the Union or the Company from their obligations under the provisions of this Article.

ARTICLE 12

GRIEVANCE/ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

(a) The Company agrees to recognize fully and treat with the Union on questions, grievances and complaints that may arise between them.

(b) There shall be no discharge, suspension or other disciplinary action without sufficient cause or without notification to the employee of the reason, in writing. All discipline must be given to the employee within 10 days of the occurrence or within ten (10) days of the time the Company knew of the occurrence or the Company will forfeit its right to discipline the employee(s).

(c) All claims or disputes of employees, the Union or the Company regarding the application, interpretation or violation of any provisions of this Agreement or the imposition of any discipline, including discharge, hereinafter called "grievances", shall be settled in the following manner:

Step One: An employee who believes that a grievance exists between the employee and the Company, shall first meet with the Manager of Operations/Safety for operators or the Manager of Maintenance for maintenance to discuss the matter in an informal manner. The employee may be accompanied by a member of the Union Executive Board. The respective Manager will respond in writing within five (5) days of the grievance meeting. If informal discussion fails to resolve the problem, the Union or the employee may take the grievance to Step 2.

Step Two - In the event the grievance is not resolved in Step One, the Union shall deliver a copy of the grievance to the General Manager or his/her designee, within five (5) days of receipt of the respective Manager's response.

The General Manager or his/her designee will conduct a hearing with the Union within five (5) days from receipt of the grievance from the Union. After completion of the hearing the General Manager will provide a written answer within five (5) days either sustaining or denying the grievance, and setting forth the reasons for the decision.

After the initial filing of a grievance, the parties may deliver all above required correspondence through email. Such emailed correspondence shall be considered timely if it is delivered to the above required party by 11:59pm on the applicable due date.

(d) Tri-Partite Arbitration

If the parties are unable to reach agreement in Step Two, and the grievance or dispute involves the application, interpretation, or violation of any provision of this Agreement, the Union (not any individual employee) or the Employer may within forty-five (45) days of said failure to reach agreement, demand arbitration and request the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service to provide the parties with a list of seven (7) prospective arbitrators.

Once a panel of possible arbitrators is received by both parties, that selection must be completed within twenty-one (21) days of such receipt. If one party fails to engage in the selection process within twenty-one days, that party shall forfeit its case and the grievance shall be granted in favor of the party that is prepared to proceed in the arbitrator selection process and denied as to the party refusing to proceed within the specified time limits. That decision shall then become final and binding.

Unless otherwise agreed, all grievances for which arbitration is requested shall be determined by three (3) arbitrators. One (1) arbitrator shall be designated by the Union and one (1) arbitrator designated by the Company. The parties shall designate their respective arbitrators within five (5) days of the date of receipt of demand for arbitration. The parties after the receipt of the list of arbitrators as provided for in paragraph 3 (d) shall determine by lot the order of elimination and thereafter each shall in that order eliminate one (1) name until only one (1) name remains. The remaining person on the list shall be the neutral arbitrator.

The decision of any two (2) of the arbitrators shall be final and binding upon both parties. The arbitrators shall be limited in their decision to the application and interpretation of the provisions of this Agreement and the arbitrators shall have no authority to alter, amend, modify, add to, subtract from or change the terms of this Agreement. Each party shall bear the expense of its own arbitrator and the parties shall share equally the expense of the third arbitrator. Each party has thirty (30) days from the postmark of the arbitrator's decision to request an executive session.

(e) Grievance Committee

Grievance Committee or individuals delegated by the Union to take up grievances with the General Manager's designated representative pursuant to Step 2 will take up such grievances at mutually acceptable times and places, within the time limits herein prescribed.

(f) It is further agreed that such time periods may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties in writing. Days referred to in Article 12 (b and c) do not include Saturdays, Sundays or Holidays.

(g) Failure to Respond

In the event that Management fails to respond to any aggrieved employee, or his/her Union Representative in any of the steps of the grievance procedure, such non-response shall be deemed a ruling in favor of grievant or Union. If the Union fails to respond in any step of the grievance procedure, such non-response shall be deemed to be the Union's decision to withdraw the grievance.

ARTICLE 13

DISCHARGE, SUSPENSION, OR OTHER DISCIPLINARY ACTION

13.1 Work Rules.

The Company may issue an Employee Handbook outlining all rules, regulations and policies. Prior to the implementation of any new or revised rule, regulation or policy the Company will issue a copy to employees covered by this Agreement and the Union, at least ten (10) days prior to the implementation of said rule, regulation or addendum.

13.2 Serious Infractions.

The following violations of Company policies and rules are considered serious infractions and shall subject the employee to immediate discharge, although the Company may impose, at its sole discretion, a lesser penalty.

(a) Removal of Company or Customer property or property of another employee without authorization, or falsification of records for the employee or a fellow employee;

(b) Threat, intimidation, harassment, physical violence or fighting any time while on duty;

(c) Possession of firearms, weapons, explosives, or similar devices on Company premises or any time while on duty;

(d) Failure for any reason to maintain a valid driver's license and all other certifications required by federal, state, local law, or client required regulations to operate the vehicles, provided that in the event of a temporary loss of the required license or certification, the employee shall be first entitled to a forty-five (45) day or less unpaid leave of absence to correct said loss of a valid driver's license or other certificate required to operate the vehicles. Failure to have the license or certification after the forty-five (45) day period shall be cause for discharge;

(e) Insubordination;

(f) Recklessness resulting in accident or incident while on duty;

(g) Abusive, harassing or threatening behavior toward a passenger, any member of the public, fellow employee, supervisor, or other company official;

(h) Having a personal electronic device powered on while operating a streetcar regardless if the vehicle is powered on or off. No blue tooth or similar devices may be used while operating the streetcar regardless if the vehicle is in motion or not.

(i) Falsifying time or revenue records, or the original employment application;

(j) Conviction of a criminal offense or DWI driving offense;

(k) Registering positive on a controlled substance test administered in accordance with the Substance Abuse Policy (Federal DOT Regulations).

(l) Violation of the Client's anti-tobacco policy, which disallows tobacco or tobacco products in or around the facility or streetcars.

(m) Use of a personal electronic device as described in Company policy.

Any discipline administered is subject to the grievance/arbitration provisions.

13.3 Attendance.

(a) Excused Absence. Any employee covered by this Agreement who has properly requested in writing and received written approval in advance from a Company manager for time off will be considered an excused absence. Excused absences do not count against the employee's attendance record. Approved jury duty, military leaves, union leaves and FMLA leaves are also considered excused absences.

(b) Unexcused Absence. An unexcused absence is defined as any time an employee covered by this Agreement misses work without prior written approval or the employee covered by this Agreement fails to notify the manager at least two (2) hours prior to the starting time of the work shift.

(c) Good Attendance. All employees covered by this Agreement are responsible for good attendance and punctuality. This means reporting to work on time each scheduled work day. Failure to meet this requirement may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

13.4 Discipline is intended to correct inappropriate behavior and shall not be administered in an arbitrary and/or capricious manner. In most cases progressive discipline shall be used. However, there are situations involving severe misconduct where immediate disciplinary action is required and appropriate. In such cases suspension or dismissal may result but may not be administered in an arbitrary and/or capricious manner.

ARTICLE 14

MILITARY CLAUSE

The parties hereto agree that the Company shall comply with USERRA, as amended and the Reserve Forces Act of 1995, and amendments thereto and Ohio Rev. Code Sec. 5903.02 and amendments thereto. Any claim associated with this clause is subject to the grievance procedure.

ARTICLE 15

NON-DISCRIMINATION CLAUSE

The Company and the Union agree not to discriminate against any individual with respect to hiring, compensation, terms or conditions of employment because of such individual's race, color, religion, sex, national origin, sexual preference or age or any other prohibited factor under state, federal or local law, nor will they limit, segregate or classify employees in any way to deprive any individual employee opportunities because of race, color religion, sex, national origin, sexual preference or age, or any other prohibited factor under federal, state or local law, nor will they limit, segregate or classify employees in any way to deprive any individual employee of employment opportunities because of race, color religion, sex, national origin, sexual preference, age, or any other prohibited factor under federal, state or local law. Any claim will be subject to the grievance procedure in this Agreement.

The Company and the Union agree that there will be no discrimination by the Company or the Union against any employee because of his/her membership in the Union or because of any lawful activity and/or support of the Union. Any claim may be brought under the grievance procedure in this Agreement.

ARTICLE 16

UNIFORMS

The employees are required to wear uniforms as a condition of his/her continued employment, such uniforms shall be furnished by the Company, free of charge. Operators will be furnished once a year three pairs of pants, five shirts, a sweater and two ties. Maintenance employees will be provided enough uniforms to have a clean uniform each work day.

Maintenance employees will receive an annual insulated reinforced shoe allowance of $125.

ARTICLE 17

ACCIDENT and INCIDENT REPORTS

Any employee covered by this Agreement involved in any accident or incident shall immediately report any accident and any physical injury sustained. When required by the Company, and provided the employee is able, the employees covered by this Agreement before going off duty and before starting his/her next shift, shall make out an accident or incident report, in writing, on forms furnished by the Company, and shall turn in all available names and addresses of witnesses to the accident per the Company's policies and procedures.

ARTICLE 18

PROBATIONARY PERIOD

The probationary period for all new employees shall be ninety (90) calendar days following their successfully-completed training and certification as a Cincinnati Streetcar Operator. Extensions may be requested by the Employer and will not be unreasonably denied by the Union. The discipline or discharge of an employee who is in probationary status shall not be a violation of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 19

SENIORITY

Seniority List:

The current seniority list being utilized by the Company shall be permanently established. It will be used to request run selection, vacation, and scheduled holidays, and for the purposes of layoff and recall.

Definition of Seniority:

An Streetcar Operator's Certification Date shall be the employee's seniority date. In filling vacant positions or promotions skill and ability to perform the assigned tasks, if all is equal, then the employee's seniority in position shall apply in filling job vacancies. The Date of Hire shall be the seniority date for maintenance employees.

An employee transferring from Streetcar Operator to Maintenance or vice versa shall fall to the bottom of the seniority in the new department.

If two or more employees are hired on the same day the date on the application will be used to determine who is most senior.

Termination of Seniority:

An employee's seniority rights shall cease and his/her employment with the Company shall terminate if:

- a. He/she quits voluntarily;
- b. He/she is discharged; (unless returned to the employee's position through the grievance/arbitration process)
- c. He/she is absent for three (3) consecutive working days without authorization and/or without notifying the Company (this constitutes a voluntary quit);
- d. He/she does not return to work within fourteen (14) consecutive days after being recalled from layoff by the by a letter sent by registered mail with return receipt requested addressed to him/her at the last address he/she has given the Company;
- e. He/she exceeds an authorized leave of absence without written approval of the Employer;
- f. On expiration of any leave of absence and failure to return to work;
- g. He/she retires.

A list of employees covered by this Agreement, arranged in the order of their seniority, shall be posted in a conspicuous place at the place of employment and a copy furnished to the Union for Union files. Claims for corrections to such seniority list must be made to the company and the Union within thirty (30) days after the allegedly inaccurate posting is initially made. After such time the seniority list will be regarded as being correct.

ARTICLE 20

OVERTIME/WORKWEEK

20.1 Overtime shall be paid for all time worked over forty (40) hours in a work week.

20.2 An employee required to report shall be guaranteed two (2) hours pay.

20.3 There shall be a minimum of four (4) bids a year.

20.4 An extra half time will be paid to a Streetcar Operator for all time worked beyond a spread of eleven (11) hours.

ARTICLE 21

VACATIONS

21.1 All full time employees shall receive paid vacation as follows:

One (one) year of service but less than two (2) years shall be entitled to one (one) week of vacation;

Two (2) years of service but less than five (5) years shall be entitled to a two (2) week vacation;

Five (5) years of service but less than ten (10) years shall be entitled to a three (3) week vacation.

21.2 Vacation pay shall be forty (40) hours for each week of vacation.

ARTICLE 22

HOLIDAYS

22.1 All full time employees shall receive the following paid holidays: New Year's Day, Martin Luther King's Birthday, Memorial Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day, and Christmas Day, and one (1) Floating Holiday. One additional floating holiday effective June 1, 2019.

22.2 All employees scheduled to work on a paid holiday shall receive eight (8) hours pay at their straight time rate of pay in addition to pay for all hours worked on the holiday. Employees not scheduled to work on a paid holiday shall be paid eight (8) hours pay at their straight time rate of pay. Holiday pay shall not be counted as time worked for purposes of overtime.

All time worked on a holiday shall be counted as time worked for overtime purposes.

22.3 In order to receive holiday pay an employee must work their scheduled work day before and their scheduled work day after the holiday.

ARTICLE 23

SICK LEAVE

23.1 All employees with one (1) year of service or more shall be entitled to five (5) days of sick leave each year. Unused sick leave cannot be carried over to the next year but will be paid out at the end of the year. Each day of sick leave shall be paid at eight (8) hours at the employee's straight time hourly rate of pay. Sick leave shall not be counted as time worked for purposes of overtime.

ARTICLE 24

JURY DUTY

Upon receipt of notification from the state or federal courts of an obligation to serve on a jury or to act as a court witness, the employee shall notify his/her supervisor and provide copies of the jury summons to the payroll department. An employee summoned for jury duty will be excused to serve, and for up to fifteen (15) work days shall be paid at their regular rate of pay for such service. Upon returning to work from jury duty, employees must present documentation of those days served.

ARTICLE 25

BERAVEMENT LEAVE

An employee absent from work because of a death in the employee's immediate family shall be entitled to receive payment for up to three (3) consecutive work days. HEALTH BENEFITS

26.1 All full time employees shall be entitled to the following health insurance options and contributions:

The Company agrees to maintain medical, dental, vision and life benefits for all full-time regular employees covered by this agreement. Upon completion of ninety (90) consecutive days of full-time employment and in accordance with plan specifications, full-time employees will be eligible to participate in the Company provided benefits as described in this article.

The parties agree that at any time during the terms of this Agreement the Company has the sole right to modify, amend, add to, and make any other changes to the health insurance coverage provided to the employees, provided that such changes are determined by the Company in its discretion to either; (1) enable Employer to provide quality affordable health insurance coverage to employees on a more cost effective basis to both the Company and employees; (2) be required in order to ensure compliance with U.S. Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (PPACA) (and comply with whatever new health care law may be passed) and/or (3) will enable the employer to avoid payment of the excise tax.

The Company will offer medical coverage, including a high deductible/affordable health plan at coverage levels, rates and through carriers it provides to all other employees at the location. The plan designs and costs will meet and/or exceed the requirements of the PPACA. The employee cost of those benefits will be payroll deducted on a pre-tax basis and reviewed annually.
